LE FRANÇAIS EN MARCHANT

Do you enjoy hiking and want to improve your French? Whatever your age, you can combine learning with fun by going for walks and also learning French. All you need is to be able to manage walks of moderate difficulty and to have some basic knowledge of French.

Le français en marchant offers you

- discovering a region - on foot in the Summer or snow shoes in the Winter
- to refresh and perfect your knowledge of French in a fun way
- to meet others of the same - or different - nationalities who enjoy hiking and who want to practise their French conversation

DAILY PROGRAMME

The course starts at 09.00 hours, teaching until midday, then lunch. We go by car to the start of the footpaths of the Pays-d'Enhaut, from Gstaad to the Plateau des Mosses. You will be accompanied by locals who will help you discover their region and with whom you can practise your French. Evenings are free. You will be able to savour the local specialities in the many restaurants of the area and unwind, speaking your own language with the other participants.

FRENCH COURSE

Intermediate level, A2 to B2 (European language portfolio)

3 hours teaching a day, in small groups (4 - 8 people)

Course leader Doris Hirschi, adult education teacher and French instructor, Swiss, well acquainted with the region with good hiking knowledge.
